SOME REACH FOR THE MOON. TITANS AIM 130 MILLION LIGHT YEARS BEYOND.

Cal State Fullerton astrophysicist Jocelyn Read has her head in the stars.

She led an international collaboration of scientists to decipher gravitational waves caused when binary neutron stars collide, revealing nuclear physics on an astronomical scale.

Read's one small step made a giant impact — redefining our known universe. The work of this Titan of discovery illuminates just one reason why CSUF has earned a stellar reputation.

Founded in 1959 by Sara O'Meara and Yvonne Fedderson
PREVENTION and TREATMENT of CHILD ABUSE

Your gift matters.

Over 10 million children have already been impacted by Childhelp.

Our Story.

Helping victims of child abuse is more than just a desire, it is our lifetime commitment. This commitment began when our founders, two young Hollywood actresses, encountered 11 homeless orphans abroad, and all of their lives were forever changed.

Our Solution.

Through treatment programs like Childhelp Advocacy Centers, the National Child Abuse Hotline (1-800) 4-A-Child and Childhelp Group Homes designed to help children already affected by child abuse, and prevention programs like Childhelp Speak Up Be Safe, designed to educate children and aid in prevention, we can help change the lives of many.

Our Impact.

The Orange County Chapter has been supporting Childhelp and its California programs, such as the 3 Group Homes in Costa Mesa and the Childhelp Merv Griffin Village in Beaumont, since 1970. The efforts of our chapter members have had a tremendous impact on the lives of abused and neglected children via the successful Childhelp Treatment Programs.

There's still so much work to be done!

How you can help.

There are many ways you can get involved with Childhelp. Whether you decide to join a Chapter, attend an event or simply donate, you will be making a huge impact on a child's life.

About the Event

In celebration of its 25th anniversary, Harvesters dazzled 450 attendees at its Annual Harvesters Fashion Show & Luncheon in support of Second Harvest Food Bank of Orange County and its mission to end hunger for more than 315,000 seniors, children, the working poor, and veterans. The Harvesters charitable event was sponsored by South Coast Plaza and held at The Pavilion at South Coast Plaza, an event space specially designed for the international shopping center's 50th anniversary celebrations.

Chaired by Harvesters Crisi Hosea and Yvonne Moyano, the event presented a stunning runway show with the season's most exciting trends offered by twelve of South Coast Plaza's top European and American luxury and designer brands.

Event Impact

The Harvesters event netted more than $1 million, enough to provide the equivalent of more than 3 million meals for the hungry in Orange County. Over the past 25 years, Harvesters annual campaigns have generated over $7.5 million, or the equivalent of more than 22 million meals to help Second Harvest end hunger in our community.

The Need

Despite living in a county renowned for its affluence, more than 315,000 people, including one in six children, are at risk of going hungry every month. With one of the highest costs of living in the country, Orange County poses some daunting challenges for the working poor who oftentimes find themselves without enough money for food, rent, medicine, and other basic necessities. Second Harvest feeds more than 250,000 people a month, but that still leaves more than 65,000 without the help they need.

315,000 people in OC, including
1 in 6 children, are at risk of going hungry every month.

Second Harvest Food Bank is the largest hunger-relief organization in Orange County, providing more than 354 million meals for the hungry since its founding in 1983. Food is provided to the hungry through a countywide network of 190 school and church pantries, soup kitchens, and senior centers. More than 90 cents of every dollar spent goes to feeding the hungry.
